Our History

Leverage Security was born from a simple yet powerful idea: security should be about more than gates, officers, and shift rotations.

Inspired by first-hand experience of poor industry practices, the company set out to create an environment where security professionals are valued, developed, and recognised as skilled experts with real career paths.

Twelve years on, that vision is a reality and the journey has only just begun.

2013

Leverage Security founded, built “by security officers, for security officers.”

2021

Leverage Security achieved its first SIA Approved Contractor Scheme (ACS) status for its high standards in security guarding and key holding services.

2026

Recognised as a nationally respected provider with 42 employees, around £3 million turnover, and multiple industry accreditations.

"Leverage are local to where my mum lives. I use them for keyholding and panic alarm response for my elderly mother. They have given her this amazing panic watch, never seen her before playing with a device that much! She tested their response a few times and they were there within 20 min. Great owner, responsive Control Room."

Sanjiv @ London West

"I would like to share positive feedback from today's training for MP at Uniqlo. Today's guard has been really good, wants to learn, has the attitude to learn and takes any advice and improves fast."
